CRIME VICTIM SERVICE CENTER

The Crime Victim Service Center is designed to offer services to crime victims and their non-offending family members, friends, secondary victims, and witnesses to crime. The CVSC provides services to victims of crime including: Assault, Homicide, Burglary, Robbery, Elder Abuse, Harassment, Identity Theft, Trafficking, Gang Violence, Adults Molested as Children, Neglected or Abused Children, and other violent crimes. We do not work with individuals affected by domestic violence or sexual assault (contact the YWCA).

CVSC SERVICES

The Crime Victim Service Center is here to help you. CVSC is available 24-hours a day to assist anyone who has questions or concerns about crime and the confusion that comes along with being a victim of a crime. CVSC services are free of charge and are confidential.

Please contact CVSC at 509.524.4526 for information or to access services. The Walla Walla YWCA Crisis Response line may also be called at 509.529.9922.

LEGAL AND MEDICAL ADVOCACY

Our agency advocates respond to hospital calls to provide medical advocacy to victims of crime. We also provide legal advocacy at police interviews and court proceedings. Moral support and information is given to victims, family, friends, and witnesses to crimes.

CRISIS INTERVENTION

Our staff provides short-term crisis intervention to clients. Advocates provide information, support, and validation for the client's feelings. We may recommend that clients seek additional therapy to assist in the healing process if warranted.

CRISIS LINE

CVSC advocates are available 24-hours a day at 509.524.4526 to answer questions, or if you just need someone to listen. For immediate emergency assistance you may call the YWCA at 509.529.9922.

REFERRAL SERVICE

Our staff is able to assist clients in finding resources and information related to their crime.

This could include long term therapy or counseling, legal or attorney services, medical services, and housing services.
